6. Staff Reports

Mark wanted to thank the city for getting the streets that needed graded and sealed. There was some struggle with that but the County did a great job helping us and Mark was appreciative.

Vera said that Community Days went well and thanked the city for their help.

There was some discussion about the prices of fireworks permits and yard sale permits. The council thought that there would be more participation if the prices were lower. It was agreed that this was set by ordinance and in order to change fees it would have to be on the agenda already and it would need time to be published in the paper of record for it to take effect.
