5. Staff Reports

Public Works Director Juan Alvarez talked briefly about some of the changes that are being made in the cemetery. He explained that they have been very busy lately with funerals, but we should be able to start seeing the changes shortly. There was some discussion about what else could be done to improve the cemetery.

Juan also explained that there is currently some yellow caution tape up in the park; he explained that there is a safety concern with the tree branches in the park that they would need to address as soon as they were able.

6. Mayor's Report

The mayor just wanted to take a minute and thank city staff for all their hard work. Sophia asked how things were going with the police department. The mayor explained that it is a very slow process and we had a very discombobulated week but that we should have an update very soon

7. Adjournment: Time: 7:23pm
